

Kerstdiner 22 december 2022

Zaal de Koning

Verslag van het kerstdiner van 22 december 2022

Dit jaar kon het kerstdiner gelukkig weer doorgaan. Deze keer waren we te gast in zaal DE KONING

Na een kop koffie of thee werden we verwelkomd door onze voorzitter. Even later sprak de wethouder een dankwoord uit naar onze vrijwilligers. Ze kregen van haar een leuke attentie uitgereikt.

Daarna konden we ons te goed doen aan enkele vis- en vleesgerechten. Heerlijk! Ook het nagerecht mocht er zijn!. Diverse soorten ijs en vers fruit vielen zeer in de smaak. Het bordje was eigenlijk te klein! Op het eind werd het personeel nog even in het zonnetje gezet. Het geheel was goed verzorgd en alles verliep vlotjes.

Kortom: we kunnen terug zien op een gezellige en geslaagde avond.

Hulde aan de activiteitencommissie.

Frank de Natris.

A woman with short grey hair and glasses, wearing a bright blue cardigan over a patterned blue and white dress, stands near the buffet table. She has a surprised or expressive facial expression. To her right, a man in a light blue button-down shirt and a plaid tie is partially visible, looking towards her.

Two women are standing in the background near a doorway. One is wearing a purple suit, and the other is wearing a black top with a patterned scarf. They appear to be engaged in conversation.

On the buffet table, there are several white bowls filled with salads. One bowl contains a green salad with tomatoes, and another contains a red salad with tomatoes. There are also stacks of white plates and a silver serving spoon.

The buffet table features several trays of pastries. There are long, rectangular pastries with white frosting and chocolate drizzle, as well as round pastries with chocolate and white frosting. A silver serving knife is placed on a white tray next to one of the pastries.

In the foreground, there is a white tray with four square pastries. They have a white base, a chocolate layer, and are topped with white frosting and colorful sprinkles. A silver serving knife is placed on the tray.
